Hear from Hummingbird founder Brian McComak who is joined by Rana Reeves, Peppermint, and Sean Coleman. This episode covers topics like the dangers of ignoring race when centering LGBTQIA+ people, and answers questions such as "What is the best way for a corporation to do brand and philanthropic partnerships with the LGBTQ+ Community?" and "My company wants to conduct a corporate social responsibility (CSR) partnership with an LGBTQ+ entity. Representation Matters

For this week's #representationmatters highlight, check out this extremely powerful Britain's Got Talent Semifinal performance that confronts police brutality head on. The network received over 15,000 viewer complaints and demands to take it down, but ultimately decided "Britain's Got Talent has always been an inclusive show, which showcases diversity and supports strong storytelling in all forms and ITV stands behind the decision to broadcast Diversity's performance on BGT. Ashley and the group are a great example of the talent, creativity and diversity of modern Britain and their performance was an authentic, heartfelt response to many of the issues and events which have affected society in 2020.“

Destination Tomorrow

Destination Tomorrow is a grassroots agency located in the South Bronx that provides services to and for the LGBTQ community. It is our belief that no one should have to leave their neighborhood to access LGBTQ specific services. It is our belief that all LGBTQ young people deserve a space to grow, learn and flourish.
